

Reception Music

Whether you hire a band or a D.J. to entertain at your wedding reception, be sure to make your music preferences known ahead of time. In fact, you should start making a list of yours and your fiance's favorite songs now. Otherwise, you might find yourself on a beach in Aruba, suddenly struck by the notion that you forgot to dance the Hokey Pokey at your wedding...

courtesy of
www.brideworld.com

- ❁ Background Music. Begins upon the arrival of guests and continues through the meal.

Type of Background Music: _____

Background Music Requests:

<input type="checkbox"/> _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____
<input type="checkbox"/> _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____
<input type="checkbox"/> _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____
<input type="checkbox"/> _____	<input type="checkbox"/> _____

- ❁ Introduction Music. To be played as the wedding party is introduced.

Introduction music selection:  _____

- ❁ First Dance. To be played for your first dance as husband and wife.

Title: _____ Artist: _____

- ❁ Father-Daughter Dance. A slow song of special meaning for you and Dad.

Title: _____ Artist: _____

- ❁ Bouquet & Garter. Usually burlesque-type music is played. A popular favorite for the garter toss is "Another One Bites the Dust."

Selections:

<input type="checkbox"/> _____	Played when? _____
<input type="checkbox"/> _____	Played when? _____

- ❁ Money Dance. Choose slow songs to be played at low levels, so you can talk to your dance partners. Don't worry about specific requests, just pick the style of music.

Type of Music: _____

- ❁ Specific Dedications and Dancing Requests: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---